(Burlington, ON)

There is lots of excitement at SB Partners LLP, the Burlington accounting firm where Mike Kee has just been named Partner.

“Being relevant is a critical factor in maintaining marketplace competitiveness,” commented John Chisholm, SB Partner’s CEO. “Being relevant to business and the owners, to current issues and opportunities, to the accounting profession and to innovation – that’s where Mike Kee, one of our next generation Partners is so important to the life blood of our firm. Being relevant means we can add value. And isn’t that why clients seek out resources?”

“We knew 15 years ago when we hired Mike as an intern, he would be a sensation. In recognition of his contribution to the ongoing growth of SB Partners, we are pleased to have him as a Partner,” added Joseph Schlett, Partner and Chair of the Board at SB Partners.

Apart from being a really nice guy, Mike is sought out by clients as a rock solid source of advice on assurance, consulting and personal and corporate taxation. His ongoing contribution to client success and to the momentum that keeps SB Partners independent and at the top of our game is integral to the seamless progression at the firm.

Mike never stands still. He has been known to travel to far off places in search of adventure and go to extraordinary lengths to satisfy his thirst for knowledge and learning.

“It is individuals like Mike that allow us to attract the best and the brightest to serve our clients and stay committed to our community for the long term”, added Chisholm. “For a firm such as ours, it is important to know how and when to transfer key management reins. That is why we place such a priority on grooming future leaders. Colleagues and clients seem to agree, Mike Kee is precisely who you would want as your business advisor, your Partner and your friend. He displays a genuine interest in people around him and is motivated to make things better – whether it is the world or his client’s business.”
